

Plant a Victory garden
Don't be a Hoarder.

OUR CUSTOMERS

seem to feel that we have what it takes to handle their insurance needs efficiently and economically. Isn't that what

Phone 4502

COLLAR AN

LAPEL INS

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

PLACE YOUR FERTILIZER ORDER NOW ... WITH YOUR LOCAL ORDER TAKER OR YOUR SOUTHERN STATES COOPERATIVE SERVICE AGENCY

Sgt Wesley Jarrells, of Fort Meade, Md., and P F C Floyd Jarrells, of Holabird, Md., recently visited their parents, Mr and Mrs. E. C. Jarrells.

food purchased for home use. The record of each family's food purchases, combined with those of other families chosen for this study, will show how the purchases of a civilian population are affected by the problems of food supply during wartime.

5. Will consumers be affected?
A. No. They will continue at present, to get ration coupons and certificates from local war price and control boards and spend them in and elsewhere for the rationed

The board will gladly exp question about "war units" rights of registrants.

ces. Among the types of de-ces are persons required to er but who have failed to persons who have failed to to some instruction of the and persons who fail to e-proper registration and etion cards with them at a faceted farmers, members of Southern States Co-boards in Buckingham, burg, Nottoway, Prince Campbell, and Amherst, lotte, Appomattox and Amities will come together to these problems Friday even-

DARK TOBACCO SALE CONTINUE GOOD

Sales on dark tobacco continued good this week, prices running above $17.1

INFANTILE PARALYSIS FUND DRIVE

W. M. Abbitt has been a chairman for Appomattox for the 1943 drive against Officers wear the insignia in the form shown hereupon on both lapels of the uniform coat and on the left side of the collar of the uniform shirt when the coat is not worn. Enlisted men wear their branch insignia only on the left side of the collar of the uniform coat. Their insignia are considerably smaller, superimposed on metal disks one inch in diameter.

Department

The letters "U. S." shown at the left, are worn by officers on both sides of the collar of the uniform coat and on the right side of the collar of the uniform shirt when the coat is not worn. Those at the right, superimposed on a disk, are worn only on non wear collar insignia on shirts.

"U. S." Officer

"U. S." Enlisted

Pvt. James W. Beale (above with guitar) is son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Beale of this county. A famous musician, he is popular Co., Wisconsin, Company, L. and I like it even better than I did in Texas. I hope I can soon be back at home with my mother and father.

Pvt. Dewey C. Almond

F. F. C. Edwin Paulette, of Fort

Further information may be obtained from field supervisor box 717, Lynchburg, Va.

During the 5-year period 1940, an average of 379,000 days, annually were spent

A cut in the amount of 35 mm film that the motion picture industry may use in 1943 will save enough film to stretch three times about the earth at the equator.

Since no new steel dies, used in the engraving industry, etc., are now available, the industry has been polishing and using both sides of old dies.

STANDARDIZE BATTERIES

teries used in devices to aid hearing, 56 varieties of "A" batteries have been reduced to two, and more than 175 varieties of "C" variety have been reduced to four standard types by the War Production Board.

Pvt. Edward L. Almond, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Almond, of Appomattox. He is stationed somewhere in North Africa.

In this small world, anything can happen. We are informed that Pvt. Guille Appomattox soldier

James Garrett, of the Navy home on a furlough.

Corp. Edwin Carter, of Fort

A black and white photograph showing a landscape. In the foreground, there is a dark, possibly grassy or wooded area. A horizontal line, likely a fence or a path, runs across the middle of the image. In the background, there are several trees and a light-colored sky. The overall image is somewhat grainy and has a historical feel.

Pvt. William Mitchell, of feald, spent the week-end letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Paulette, stated that he is getting along fine and that he appreciates the many letters he receives from his friends. Pvt. Paullette, another son, is stationed at Fort Winfield Scott, San

